OFFICIAL NEWS RELEASE

POLICE SEEK PUBLIC'S HELP IN HOMICIDE INVESTIGATION

March 3, 2019

Burbank, California – Burbank Police Detectives are continuing to investigate the shooting death of a man on March 2, 2019. The victim has since been identified as 21-year-old Christian Guevara of Burbank.

The shooting occurred in the early morning hours of March 2 in the 4000 block of West Clark Avenue. Initial details of the investigation were first reported in yesterday's news release.

According to reports, the victim was attending a party at the residence where the shooting took place. It is believed that upwards of 50 people were at the home at various times throughout the night. Many of these people have yet to be identified and likely have information that would help investigators.

Burbank Police Detectives are seeking the public's help in identifying the suspect responsible for the death of Christian Guevara. Anyone with information is asked to call the Burbank Police Department, at (818) 238-3000, or by contacting Detective Kay via e-mail, at AKay@burbankca.gov. You can remain anonymous.

Burbank Police would also like to remind the public that harboring, concealing, or aiding the suspect in avoiding capture is a felony and subject to arrest and prosecution to the fullest extent of the law.
