OFFICIAL NEWS RELEASE

STABBING INVESTIGATION VICTIM LISTED IN CRITICAL CONDITION

SCOTT LACHASSE
CHIEF OF POLICE

DATE: March 15, 2016

On Monday, March 14, 2016, at about 10:35 pm, Burbank Police Officers and Burbank Fire Department Paramedics responded to the 200 block of N. First St. for a report of a man bleeding from his head.

Upon arrival, the officers and paramedics located a 40 year-old male suffering from apparent major stab wounds to his head, neck and torso. The victim was unresponsive. He was transported to a local hospital, where he underwent surgery and is now listed in critical condition.

Burbank Police Detectives were called and responded to the scene. The initial investigation has revealed the victim got into an altercation with a male and female on the First St. sidewalk, between Palm Ave. and Orange Grove Ave. The altercation became physical and spilled out onto the roadway, before bystanders intervened and broke up the fight.

The parties separated and walked away from the scene. The male and female, who have not been identified, were last seen walking south on First St.

Investigators would like to speak with the male and female involved in the fight. The male is described as white or Hispanic, 25 to 35 years old, with dark short hair. The female is described as Hispanic, about 25 years old, with long curly hair.

The weapon used in this incident has not been recovered.

Anyone with information related to this incident is asked to contact Burbank Police Detective Henry Garay at (818) 238-3210 or call Crime Stoppers at 800-222-TIPS (8477) to remain anonymous.
