OFFICIAL NEWS RELEASE

MALE ARRESTED AFTER STABBING TWO FEMALES & ATTACKING A THIRD

DATE: March 4, 2015

On March 3, 2015, at approximately 2300 hours, Burbank Police Officers responded to the 700 block of Roselli Street regarding an assault that just occurred.

As officers arrived, they located three female victims, two of which were suffering from stab wounds and the third who had been attacked. The suspect fled the scene just prior to the officers' arrival.

The three female victims (Ages 67, 41, and 21) were transported to a local hospital with what appears to be non-life threatening injuries and are in critical but stable condition.

Officers began their investigation and searched for the outstanding suspect. As the investigation proceeded, the suspect was located in the area and taken into custody at approximately 4:00 a.m., without incident.

Based on the preliminary investigation it appears a victim knew the suspect. The extent of the relationship is unknown at this time.

Suspect: Hansen, Cameron M/29, resides in Santa Clarita.

Charges: Attempt murder (664-187 PC).

At this time the knife is still outstanding, and it is believed to have been discarded in the surrounding area of Roselli. It is described as a black folding knife with a black blade. If anyone should locate it, please do not touch it and contact the Burbank Police Department immediately!

Anyone with additional information regarding this situation is asked to contact Detective Childs at (818) 238-3275.
