OFFICIAL NEWS RELEASE

DEATH INVESTIGATION APPARENT DEAD BODY LOCATED IN A FIELD

---

DATE: April 28, 2016

This afternoon, at about 12:35pm a citizen called the Burbank Police Department to report a dead body in an open field adjacent to the lumber yard in the 600 block of North Victory Boulevard.

Responding officers found, what appeared to be, a deceased person wrapped in dark plastic. The person's feet were exposed, but no other part of the body was visible. The officers were unable to determine the gender, race or age of the decedent.

Burbank Police investigators and criminalists with the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department are processing the scene. The coroner has been advised and will be assisting with the investigation.

The investigation is in the early stages. The mode and manner of death is not known at this time.

Anyone with information about this case is asked to contact detectives at (818) 238-3210 or Crime Stoppers at 800-222-TIPS (8477) to remain anonymous.
