OFFICIAL NEWS RELEASE

GANG RELATED SHOOTING LUNDIGAN PARK

SCOTT LACHASSE
CHIEF OF POLICE

DATE: February 4, 2016

Burbank Police Department detectives are investigating a gang related shooting that occurred earlier this evening at about 5:55pm in Lundigan Park, 2701 Thornton Avenue.

Firefighters in adjacent Fire Station 13 heard the sound of shots fired and immediately reported it to the Police Department. The firefighters and paramedics located one victim on Naomi Street, near the park. The victim, a 21 year-old male, was treated and transported to a local hospital, where he is undergoing surgery. His injuries do not appear to be life threatening.

One male was seen running from the area and entering a black 4-door vehicle, which left westbound Thornton Avenue.

Detectives, who remain on scene collecting evidence and talking to witnesses, believe this shooting to be gang related.

Anyone who witnessed or heard the shooting took place is urged to contact investigators at (818) 238-3210 or Crime Stoppers at 800-222-TIPS (8477) to remain anonymous.
