April is Distracted Driving Awareness Month.

Drivers are using their cell phones less often while driving, 10 years after “hands-free” became the law, but distracted driving remains a serious safety challenge in California. Observing April as Distracted Driving Awareness Month and the first week in April as California Teen Safe Driving Week, safety advocates will focus on education and enforcement statewide.

Month.

The Burbank Police Department will join law enforcement throughout the state to step up enforcement along with awareness efforts by the California Office of Traffic Safety (OTS) to discourage distracted driving. Officers will have a special emphasis this month on enforcing all cell phone and distracted driving laws. April 5th and 13th have been designated as the two statewide enforcement dates when law enforcement agencies will increase distracted driving enforcement activities.

Preliminary 2017 data shows nearly 22,000 drivers were involved in distracted driving collisions in California, a decline from the more than 33,000 drivers involved in distracted driving collisions in 2007, the last full year before the hands-free law went into effect.

REMEMBER:

- If you receive a text message or need to send one, pull over and park your car in a safe location, but ‘never’ on a freeway. Once you are safely off the road and stopped, it is safe to text.
- Designate your passenger as your “designated texter.” Allow them access to your phone to respond to calls or messages.
- Do not engage in social media scrolling or messaging while driving.
- Cell phone use can be habit-forming. Struggling to not text and drive? Put the cell phone in the trunk or back seat of your vehicle until you arrive at your final destination.

The above information was furnished by the California Office of Traffic Safety. For more information and resources, visit www.ots.ca.gov.

COMMUNITY BULLETIN

FROM THE BURBANK POLICE PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE

“SWATTING

Swatting is the action or practice of making a prank call to emergency services in an attempt to bring about the dispatch of a large number of armed police officers to a particular address.

Use and Misuse of 911

911 and emergency communication lines are critical components of public safety. 911 is used when there is a life or death emergency that requires the immediate response of emergency service personnel, such as police, fire, or paramedics.

When there is a non-emergency need for police services, the Burbank Police Department has a 7-digit phone number available 24 hours per day. Dial (818) 238-3000 for non-emergency police services in the City of Burbank.

Recently, there has been an unsettling pattern of fake emergency calls being made nationwide. Commonly referred to as “swatting,” false reporting of an emergency is illegal and extremely dangerous. Fake or prank emergency calls place first responders and members of the public at-risk and tie-up emergency resources. False emergency calls and hoaxes have resulted in serious injury and even death in the United States.

The Burbank Police Department would like to remind the community that it is a misdemeanor under the California Penal Code for any person to willfully use the 911 system for any purpose other than the reporting of an actual emergency. Furthermore, it is a felony if someone is injured or dies as a result of emergency service response to a false or fake call.

The Burbank Police Department takes this issue very seriously and will investigate any and all false reports of emergencies. Anyone suspected of reporting a false emergency or false crime will be held liable, both criminally and civilly for any costs associated with the response of public safety personnel.

Remember – 911 is for real emergencies only.
