May 3, 2022

Burbank, California – A 39-year-old man has been arrested and charged with attempt murder stemming from a shooting that took place on April 30th.

On April 30, 2022, at about 7:15 p.m., Burbank Police responded to the 400 block of South Glenoaks Boulevard regarding reports of a female being shot. When officers arrived, they encountered a female suffering from two gunshot wounds, and two males physically fighting in the street.

During the investigation, officers learned the female was at the location with her uncle and was sitting in her vehicle preparing to leave. The suspect, who is the female’s ex-boyfriend, approached the female and pointed a pistol towards her midsection. The female’s uncle tried to intervene, at which time the suspect shot at him, missing. The suspect then pointed the pistol at the female and shot her twice, once in the arm and once in the upper torso. The three then began physically fighting in the street until officers arrived and separated them.

The female victim (41) was transported to a local hospital and treated for non-life-threatening injuries. The male victim (56) was treated at the scene for injuries sustained from the physical altercation. A loaded firearm was located at the scene and believed to be the gun the suspect used.

The suspect has been identified as 39-year-old Armen Yeghiazaryan. Yeghiazaryan was arrested and booked for 664/187(a) PC – Attempt Murder and several other felonies.

In February of 2022, Mr. Yeghiazaryan was arrested for threatening to kill the same female victim as this shooting. The case was presented to the Los Angeles County District Attorney’s Office for filing consideration; however, Mr. Yeghiazaryan bonded out, and the District Attorney’s Office had yet to decide on whether to file charges.

On May 3, 2022, the Los Angeles County District Attorney’s Office reviewed this case and filed two counts of premeditated attempt murder, two counts of assault with a deadly weapon, felony domestic violence, and stalking against Mr. Yeghiazaryan. He is due to appear in court today for arraignment and is being held in lieu of $3,250,000 bail.
