COFFEE WITH A COP EVENT A SUCCESS

DATE: April 23, 2013

On April 22, 2014, The Burbank Police Department COPS Bureau hosted their first Coffee with a Cop event. Coffee with a Cop is a community based policing program that is designed to establish relationships and trust between the community and the police. Priscilla's Gourmet Coffee, located at 4150 Riverside Drive, was the first coffee house in Burbank where police officers and members of the community came together to ask questions, address concerns, and drink coffee.

Coffee with a Cop allows citizens the opportunity to get safety tips, and information on how to communicate with the police via social media networks which are used to keep citizens informed. These informal conversations with the Police Officers give residents and business owners a chance to connect with police in a relaxed atmosphere.

A Coffee with a Cop event will be held each month at a different location, and at different times. For further information about our upcoming Coffee with a Cop, check our website at "www.burbankpd.org" or contact our police volunteer Judy Andrews at "Andrews@burbankca.gov"
