Chief of Police

“OPERATION CROSSROADS NETS ARRESTS”

DATE: July 24, 2015

On Thursday, July 23, 2015, the Burbank Police Department worked with several agencies along the Burbank / Glendale border, in what was dubbed “Operation Crossroads,” with the goal of working collaboratively to impact crime, with an emphasis on gang enforcement and outreach.

In addition to officers and investigators from Glendale PD, our partners with Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Los Angeles County Probation, California Department of Corrections Parole and LA County Department of Child and Family Services were involved in the operation.

The operation netted several arrests; including one person who was arrested for possession of heroin for the purpose of sale and another for being in violation of the terms of his probation by being with another gang member.

The agencies plan to continue our cooperative working relationship to positively impact our communities.
