DISPOSITIONS:

Unfounded – When the investigation discloses that the alleged act did not occur or did not involve Department personnel (includes frivolous complaints).

Exonerated – When the investigation discloses that the alleged act occurred but that the act was justified, lawful, or proper.

Not Sustained – When the investigation discloses that there is insufficient evidence to sustain the complaint or fully exonerate the employee.

Sustained – When the investigation discloses sufficient evidence to establish that the act occurred and that it constituted misconduct.
