Community Policing in the 21st Century to Reduce Conflict

A FREE California POST Certified Plan V Procedural Justice 8-Hour Course (POST ID #1368-20701)

Description:

This dynamic course outlines new opportunities for making or improving upon community connections between police officers & members of the public. Attendees will acquire useful tools to respond safely & effectively to the community's needs by better implementing the strategies (or tenets) of "Procedural Justice." Without jeopardizing Officer Safety or asking police officers to be "Soft on crime," this course will assist attendees in humanizing the badge. Whether looking for the upper hand in any promotional process or simply looking for better ways to build trust in your community, this is the course for you!

Course Objectives:

- Demonstrate how community partnerships improve officer safety
- Recognize the importance of "Event + Response = Outcome (E+R=O)"
- Utilizing De-escalation techniques without jeopardizing officer safety
- Dissect WYSM's 12 engagement strategies - 120 seconds to build trust
- Improve upon "Best Practice" Tactical Communication techniques
- Research positive and negative impacts of social media
- Discuss how to empower youth as a force multiplier in your community
- Learn 10 ways to assist peers with unresolved trauma - "10 F's" by Gordon Graham
- Review the "Tenets" of Procedural Justice
